BRMEMC Opens Lobby to Public on May 18

YOUNG HARRIS, Ga. — Blue Ridge Mountain EMC will open its lobby to the public on Monday, May 18 with modifications in doing business to keep the public and its employees safe and healthy.

Visitors to BRMEMC will see directional signs for entering and exiting the lobby; and floor markers to assist the flow of foot traffic for rendering services; all while abiding by state and federally-recommended social distancing guidelines. BRMEMC is suggesting that visitors consider wearing masks upon entry of the building, and if sick, to please not enter the building, but instead call our office at (706) 379-3121 for assistance over the phone.

BRMEMC will continue to provide excellent customer service and assist visitors to our lobby in the best manner possible. Employees will be wearing masks and adhering to social distancing of at least six feet from anyone they come in contact with. It is imperative that our employees remain as healthy as possible and able to perform their essential duties.

We appreciate your patience and cooperation during this time.

For more information, visit brmemc.com or call (706) 379-3121.
